Terry Goddard to Promote Internet Safety to the Boys & Girls Club of Kingman, Discuss Proposed Meth Legislation

(Kingman, Ariz. – February 9, 2005) Arizona Attorney General Terry Goddard will visit the Boys and Girls Club of Kingman Thursday to promote Internet Safety. Last week the Boys & Girls Club Alliance of Arizona named Goddard Champion for Kids in recognition of his commitment to protect children. Approximately 100 children participate in the Kingman club's activities after school each day. Goddard will be joined by Mohave County Attorney Matthew Smith, Mohave County Sheriff Tom Sheahan, and Kingman Police Chief Robert De Vries.

During his visit, Goddard will help Smith and Sheahan present a contribution to the Club to support a computer lab for Internet Safety Education.

Following the Internet Safety Program, Goddard will be addressing the press on his new anti-meth initiative.
